NWMHA is now looking for Assist Coaches for Our Coaching Development Program

#PassItForward to the next generation.

We are encouraging applications from former Minor and Jr. hockey players with the ambitions to spend 1-2 years under a head coach to become a head within New Westminister to gain experience behind the bench to allow you to start your career in coaching hockey.

We are looking for Assist Coaches from Atom to Bantam to join the program, we will send you to Hockey Canada certifications program and give you the opportunity to grow as a coach to allow you to become a head coach within our system or beyond.

Structure of program:

- Development coaches will attend NCCP certification and will also complete Respect in Sport and Concussion Awareness Training Tool And complete a criminal Records Check. This will be paid from NWMHA.
- Coaches will then be assigned to a NWMHA team where they will be mentored by the head coaches and assist with practices and games
- Coaches will be expected to attend three evening meetings during the season to meet as a group and discuss their progress with the course work, their experience with their teams, and ask any questions they may have of our mentor coaches present at the meeting.
- Upon completion of their course work and season, we will announce their accomplishment on our NWMHA website.
