-Sent email to all coaches that need accreditation that no local Coach2 or Dev1 clinics left to register in lower mainland now. Sent email to Glen @ BC Hockey if he knows of any that may come up soon so I can at least advise the coaches to keep an eye out. No word back yet from Glen.

-Looking at BC Hockey for Coaching Skills Clinics available for this season. Current requested a date of January 26th. Still waiting on confirmation back from BC Hockey.

-I attended all Viet's camps thus far. There are good numbers of H4 to Bantam goalies attending. Clinic is well liked and significantly improved from previous years according to the goalie parents and kids.

Referee Allocator & RIC Report

Since the last meeting the only thing to report is that we have started getting the new officials out on the ice as the H3/H4 games have now started.

I have had to send out an email reminding the new officials that the games are now out and available for the picking. Out of the 14 new officials we have had 11 of them hit the ice for the first time and 4 of those individuals have had 2 games each. We are hoping to get them into a few Atom C games soon.

Next year I would like to suggest something put in place as encouragement for our H1-H4 teams to attend not only the NWMHA Coaches/Managers meeting but also to attend the PCAHA Coaches/Managers meeting as it is very discouraging when you go to the arena and you try to speak to the coaches or the managers about certain issues that are happening from an officials point of view and they look at you and ask you who you are? Or state they don't know who you are, and they don't need to listen to you. I had this happen to me several times last week alone. Twice by individuals that did not attend any of the meetings.

I have put the games for the Herb House Midget C/Pee Wee A tournament into my assigning system on Friday Dec. 6th and will be working on getting all the games assigned as soon as possible.

Tyke refs are now getting paid $18 instead of $15

Division Managers:

1. Tyke (Brad):

- What is the Christmas ice schedule?
- What is the last date we should schedule games in March?

2. Novice (Sarah): I don't have a whole lot. The Vancouver Warriors fundraising campaign. Issues with booking games with certain associations so having trouble getting games.

We still need dividers for Queens Park Arena.

3. Atom (Christiana

Atom Division is currently in league games.

Atom A1 is in flight 2 as they were moved up from flight 3. They have played 8 league games with 4 wins, 2 losses and 2 ties. They are ranked 4 in their flight. No new major penalties to report. No issues.

They had to call up one player for a game and one goalie for another game.

Atom C1 is in the Gold group. They have played 5 league games with 3 wins and 2 losses. They are ranked 3 in their group. No major penalties to report. Their goalie is away for 3 games and they have called up players from H4 and a goalie from H4. No issues to report.

Atom C2 is in the Orange group. They have played 5 league games with 3 wins and 2 losses. They are ranked 3 in their group. No major penalties or issues to report.

Atom C3 is in the Blue group. They have played 5 league games with 4 wins and 1 loss. They are ranked 1 in their group. No major penalties to report. No issues to report.

Atom C4 is in the Orange group. They have played 4 league games all of which were wins. They are ranked 1 in their group. No major penalties or issues to report.

Atom C4 lost their full time goalie as his family moved away in mid-November. They do have a player who has taken on playing goal for the majority of their games so far. I am told that they have a couple other players willing to play goal too. I have encouraged them to attend goalie clinics on Saturdays.

PeeWee C2 has made 7 call-ups from Atom. These games all went well and the Atom players are enjoying the opportunities to play up.

4. PeeWee (Frank):

After balancing/placement the two C teams ended up tied in points with C2 one place higher in the standings with a slight edge in goal differential. Both teams are in the same group and remain close in the standings.
